Donor Transparency & Protection

Donation & Giving Questions · https://freespeech.org/help-page/donor-transparency-protection/

We are deeply grateful for the support we receive from individuals, foundations, and sponsors. Because we value partnerships across the independent media and progressive movement spectrum, sometimes we see journalistic value in covering an organization or individual who is also a donor to FSTV. When this happens, we disclose all potential and actual conflicts of interest to our audience. This disclosure does not imply ethical impropriety. We simply value transparency.

We do not disclose privileged or confidential information to unauthorized parties.

We do not sell, rent, or exchange donor or partner information ever.
