What is Free Speech TV?

FSTV Information · https://freespeech.org/help-page/what-is-free-speech-tv/

Free Speech TV (FSTV) is one of the last standing national, independent news networks committed to advancing progressive social change. As the alternative to television networks media companies owned by billionaires and influenced by governments and corporations, FSTV our network amplifies underrepresented voices and those working on the front lines of social, economic and environmental justice.
